

2019 International Association of Law Enforcement Planners Training Conference Cleveland, Ohio

Call for Presentation Proposals

In preparation for the 28th Annual International Association of Law Enforcement Planners (IALEP) Training Conference, in Cleveland, Ohio, September 9-13, 2019, the Conference Committee is seeking presentation proposals. The conference agenda will consist of numerous individual presentations (lasting approximately 1 hour and 15 minutes each). Presentation topics should focus on issues relating to law enforcement planning while embracing the conference theme of Relationships, the training focus of investigative workload analysis, and/or one of the IALEP certification topical areas listed here:

Budget	Data Collection	Strategic Communication	Inter-Government Liaison	Process Mapping	Police Auditing
Crime Analysis	Policy Development	Grants	Performance Measurement	Strategic Planning	Operations Analysis
Project Management	Community Policing	Procurement Analysis	Human Resources	Emergency Management	Applied Research
Facilities Planning	Crime Prev. thru Environ. Design	Accreditation	IT Planning and Coordination	Police Organization Governance	Business Case Development
Procedural Justice	Police Equipment Coordination	Problem Solving	Program Evaluation	Risk management	Business Process Review

Presentation proposal submissions are now welcome and should take the following form:

- An abstract (up to 500 words), on a Word or PDF document attached to an email sent to Jhamm@city.cleveland.oh.us, no later than March 1, 2019, including contact information and any special requests or requirements.
- Although submissions from commercial companies are welcome, presentations should not include direct reference to such products unless used as an illustration point only.
- Submissions will be reviewed by the IALEP Conference Committee. If you are selected, you will be notified by the end of March. IALEP members attending the conference will be reimbursed for one night's accommodation in appreciation.

Any questions, comments, or concerns about presentation proposals should be referred to the conference liaison:

Lieutenant Johnny E. Hamm
Cleveland Division of Police
Jhamm@city.cleveland.oh.us
216-623-2716

